

March 4, 2010

For Immediate Release

Contact: Janet Showalter
Communications Coordinator
janet@chsva.org; (804) 353-0191, ext. 16

City Singers Children's Choirs to offer Mother's Day concert to benefit Children's Home Society

Richmond, VA – City Singers Children's Choirs of Richmond is dedicating its May 9th Mother's Day Concert to raise awareness and funds for Children's Home Society of Virginia. During the concert, the Children's Choirs will be joined by the Virginia Benefit Choral as well as a number of guest musicians from the Richmond area. All mothers and their guests receive free admission to the event, which begins at 2:30 p.m. at Ginter Park Presbyterian Church, 3601 Seminary Avenue in Richmond. Donations will be accepted.

Children's Home Society of Virginia is a private, nonprofit adoption agency finding permanent homes for children of all ages. Chartered in 1900, the agency also provides related services to birth families, adoptive families and adoptees.

The City Singers Children's Choirs provides quality choral music education to young singers in grades second through twelfth and strives to direct not only their voices, but their hands to enrich the Richmond community through benefit concerts and service projects.

For details, please call (804) 657-SONG.